ROBERT BERMAN GALLERY presents LOST & FOUND/ABSTRACTING LOS ANGELES 1945 - 1980 – paintings, drawings, sculptures and assemblages from obscure and known artists who used different mediums to interpret the abstract expressionist movement with a Los Angeles twist. The focus will be post war works up to 1980. This exhibition will show different mediums relating to LA's interpretation of modernism with an emphasis on the difference between Los Angeles and its East Coast counterpart.

Exhibition includes select works by Elsa Wagner, Donald Tschoop, Ted Gilien, Eugene Berman, Jules Engel, Russ Tamblyn, John Grillo, Ben Talbert, Hans Burkhardt, James Gill, Paul Bruch, Norman Zammitt, Agnes Kellog, William Tunberg, Henrietta Berk, Joe Goode, Oskar Fischinger, Frank Lobdell, John Baldessari, Ed Kienholz, Bruce Conner, Craig Kauffman, Carlos Almaraz, Llyn Folkes, Rico Lebrun Larry Bell, Eric Orr, Man Ray, Wallace Berman, Don Sorenson, John Altoon and Robert Graham.
